LENT: MOVING FROM A DESSERT TO A DESERT EXPERIENCE

We all know what dessert is. After we eat our fill of a meal, we find room for something sweet and delicious. I know, as a kid, if I could do anything, it was finding room for that pumpkin pie or oatmeal cookie. On one hand, you don't really need it. But on the other hand, it is so wonderful...until it becomes too much. This is why Lent is so necessary for us every year. We need a moment to stop and think about all the "extra" things that have crept into our lives that keep us from living the life God has in store for us. Perhaps we need to ask ourselves: what is competing with my prayer time? At the end of my day, when I have already had a full day, what am I adding to it that makes me more tired, unhealthy and stressed?

In the Gospel of Mark this weekend, it says that "the Spirit drove Jesus out into the desert, and He remained in the desert for forty days, tempted by Satan. He was among wild beasts, and the angels ministered to Him." The Holy Spirit drove Jesus into the desert experience because it is in the desert that we are able to rid ourselves of the "extra" of life and give time for what really matters. It was His time in the desert that enabled Him to realize that "the kingdom of God is at hand." When we busy ourselves with unnecessary things, we often fail to see the kingdom God is building and wants you to build up with your life.

During the season of Lent, we will be singing "Into the Desert." Many of you know the song. But I want to share some of the lyrics as an invitation to move from a dessert life to a desert life...

*Come, beloved, and rest your mind;
leave the things of this world behind.
Here I will be your daily bread, all that you need.
Into the desert I will lead; here in the silence
My word will speak.
And you will find the peace you seek here in the desert.
Stay, beloved, and lose your fear;
there is healing and mercy here.
Here I will be a living stream, all that you need.*

Get rid of the "extras" in your life. Create a desert experience so you can truly pray and "find the peace you seek...healing and mercy...all that you need."

Happy Lent, Fr. Jeremy

"If you cannot feed a hundred people, then feed just one."

Mother Teresa

Are you looking for a way to make your Lenten journey more meaningful? We are offering an opportunity for you to help those in need simply by adding one or two items to your grocery cart each week and sharing them with the Parish Food Pantry.

In conjunction with the St. Francis de Sales School Lenten Food Drive, the parish will be collecting specific food items over the next four weekends of Lent. You may bring your contributions to church and leave them in the narthex. This concentrated effort will stock the St. Vincent de Paul Society Food Pantry and aid our neighbors in need.

The purpose of this Lenten Food Drive is to emphasize and reflect on the importance of almsgiving during Lent and to restock the Food Pantry as the needs of our neighbors have increased. We ask that you simply buy an extra item when you do your weekly grocery shopping and think about a person or family you may be helping. For example, as you enjoy a pasta dinner, pray for the family that you have literally "served" a pasta dinner to as well. To have a well-stocked pantry, the focus will be on items we know are needed. We are suggesting the following schedule so you can plan accordingly:

- February 24-25: Pasta, Pasta Sauce, Ramen Noodles
- March 2-3: canned tuna, canned chicken, canned meals,
- March 9-10: canned corn, canned green beans, canned beans
- March 16-17: paper goods (toilet paper, paper towels, tissues)

The school families will be invited to share items that are related to family dinners and kid-friendly items to make this service project more "real" for the students.

Why are we asking for assistance besides our annual Thanksgiving food collection? Because the need has increased significantly. Last fiscal year, the Food Pantry gave out 270 bags helping 539 people. At Thanksgiving 2023, 98 bags were distributed aiding 313 people (compared to 72 bags in 2022) and at Christmas 2023, 105 bags were distributed, helping 343 people (compared to 91 bags in 2022). We are currently distributing 8-12 bags a week.

Here is a real case scenario to think about: K. comes to the pantry with her adult daughter who cannot work due to cancer. She tells us each time what a blessing it is to receive a bag of groceries, toiletries, or household cleaning products if she needs them.

"For it is in giving that we receive."

"The courage and strength that are in me are not of me, but of Him who lives in me – it is the Eucharist."
– St. Faustina

St. Jerome said: "Where Christ is, there are the angels." So then, we can say: "Where the tabernacle is, there are the angels." Through Holy Communion, we ourselves become tabernacles, and adore the Lord in our heart with the Holy Angels. St. Bernard of Clairvaux said: "When Jesus is present with His Body in us, the angels surround us as a holy guard." Therese Holderbaum will give a talk on the Holy Angels at 6:00 p.m. in the Holy Family Room at the Memorare Center on Wednesday, February 21st. The talk will be followed by a discussion at 7:15 p.m. on Angels and how they help us to pray, especially in adoration, (letter 5 for those in formation for consecration to their Guardian Angels). All are welcome. Please RSVP to the Parish Office at 330-644-2225 for the talk and/or the discussion.

A MESSAGE FROM STEPHEN MINISTRY:

We are here to care! Are you going through a difficult time – emotionally, spiritually, or relationally? Are you lonely, experiencing a crisis, or simply stressed by everyday life? You don't have to suffer alone. Our Stephen Ministers are trained caregivers, ready to listen, care for and encourage you, pray with and for you, and provide confidential one-to-one Christian care to help you through whatever it is that you are facing. To find out more, talk with Ann Clark at aclark2@stfparish.com or Bill Dickey at wdickey@stfparish.com.

ANGEL SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Through the Angel Scholarship Fund, you can now contribute funds that will be used to provide tuition assistance for students to attend our school, and you will receive a 100% Ohio income tax credit of up to $750.00 (single) and $1,500.00 (married), against your state tax liability. In other words, the state of Ohio allows you to "spend" some of the state income taxes you must pay anyway to provide tuition assistance for students seeking an education in our Catholic schools. The Angel Scholarship Fund is a win-win-win for taxpayer donors, scholarship recipients, and our diocese. See the form on the following page to make your contribution today.

PROTECTING GOD'S CHILDREN

Also, please contact the Diocesan Response Service Office at 216-334-2999 or via email at response_services@dioceseofcleveland.org.
